Supplemental Figure 1: Composition of Validation Data. A) Composition of the Variant Allele Fraction (VAF) of mutations in the validation set vs the entire public data set. Validation data has a clear bias toward lower VAF mutations, selected for validation because they were harder to call. B) Composition of the validation data by cancer type. Most of the calls coming from UCEC, COAD and LUAD.